

2009 Volunteer Form

Epcot® International Flower & Garden Festival

With 11th year of partnership, FNGLA's participation in the Epcot® International Flower & Garden Festival is again making great strides to link Epcot guests with a fabulous, unique, interactive and educational features that are plant-centered and family-friendly! The 2009 display is an all new "Green Garden" centered on activities for the family. Featuring two households-- the I.M. Green family and the R.U. Wasteful family-- the garden serves as an educational platform to educate guests on green gardening practices such as composting, recycling and showcases the use of the Florida-friendly gardening principle of right plant, right place in a fun, creative Disney way!

As a volunteer you will visit with guests and answer questions about the display, its plants, and plants in general. Volunteering gives you entrance to Epcot® for the day you host the display. Volunteers work a three hour shift, either noon-3:00 PM or 3:00 PM -6:00 PM on any Thursday, Friday, Saturday or Sunday during the 10 1/2-week Festival. Spouses and friends qualify to assist in the garden only if they are horticulture savvy and can effectively serve as a garden volunteer. Children are not permitted to act as FNGLA volunteers. By completing this form, you agree to follow Disney's dress and behavior guidelines. Noncompliance will result is volunteers being asked to leave the premisses.

Are you interested in volunteering to host the display?

1. Spend a day at Epcot®.
2. Earn two FNGLA Certified Industry Professional CEUs (if certified).
